

for them to do," replied Senator Lodge. "Of course these people who have no debts will be glad to vote for the people who do owe the debts pay them. What is it to Holland or Spain whether we pay it or somebody else does? They do what European interest demands. They will furnish the votes and the constitution of the league, and that is all they have to do. Of course, the people who do not owe money will not be included in the agreement to pay money, but when M. Polk, who has been recently President of France, discusses an elaborate article which will be done at this meeting of the league, I venture that he knows as much about it as the Senator from Nebraska."

Senator Hitchcock asserted that nobody in Great Britain favored such a scheme, and said that when the suggestion was made in Paris it was too preposterous to be considered and nobody took it seriously.

ACCUSE JOHNSON OF FACING BOTH WAYS

Wood Campaigners Say He Is 'Dry' in West and 'Wet' in East.

BITTER RIVALRY SHOWN

Johnson Men Expect to Carry New Jersey, Wood Confident of Winning.

Much bitterness marked the windup of the direct and pre-arranged Presidential primary campaign in New Jersey yesterday. It was displayed in statements and in advertisements from both camps, those of Senator Hiram W. Johnson as well as those of Major-Gen. Wood.

On Johnson's behalf it was claimed that he would carry the statewide preference fight by anywhere from 5,000 to 10,000. The Wood forces contented themselves with saying they would win and that they were pretty sure of capturing all twenty-eight delegates to the national convention.

The Wood men are sure, the Johnson managers declared, to carry Hudson, Essex, Morris and Passaic counties, which, if accomplished, would mean the election of six or seven district delegates.

The by-play and combinations effected have so seriously muddled up the situation that the fact of the matter is neither side is sure of anything. The chances seemed last night to favor the election as delegates-at-large of E. C. Stokes, pledged to Wood, and of United States Senators Edge and Freylinghuyzen, both of whom are pledged to support the primary choice, but are actively working for Johnson's success. It is asserted, Thomas L. Raymond, a "wet," pledged to Wood, is likely to be the fourth winner.

In advertisements the Wood campaigners have pictured Johnson as narrow and prejudiced in his ideas about prohibition. The Johnson display declarations have been to the effect that in Indiana and South Dakota Wood had posed as a friend of prohibition, while in New Jersey he fostered to be known as an extremely liberal.

Captain Robert J. Foster, of the Wood boomers, denounced the Johnson declaration that he was running "without power, wealth or influence" as absurd and deceptive.

"If he is running on a shoestring," said the Captain, "it is a shoestring fashioned of strands of gold and platinum, with diamonds and radium tips. He has the wealth, power and influence of nine California millionaires with an aggregate wealth of $150,000,000."

"All New Jersey men who want to endorse prohibition, government ownership of railroads and Hearst domination of Republican politics and Western millionaire dictation in Eastern politics can do so by voting for Johnson in the primary."

"Big Four." He is out for Hoover. That he is strong is not doubted, but he has lost standing with many for his failure to throw his support to his party on certain occasions during the last two or three years.

Wood's manager, Representative Luffin, has been working especially hard to elect George von L. Meyer, formerly Secretary of the Navy, and William H. Wood in his own district, and their chances look good. William S. Felton and Frederick Farr, unpledged, but said to have Coolidge support, are opposing Meyer and Wood.

Gov. Coolidge appealed to-day to Republicans to register their preferences. He will go to the western part of the State early to-morrow to drop his own vote in Northampton.

On the Democratic end little difficulty is expected in election of the Walsh slate for delegates at large. This consists of Senator David I. Walsh, District-Attorney Andrew J. Talletier, Richard H. Long of Framingham and Daniel F. Doherty of Springfield. Former Representative "Joe" O'Connell, who is out for Hoover, seeks a place in this group.

Twelve women will be elected to the two conventions, eleven of them being unopposed for seats in the Democratic primary. The sole woman Republican candidate is Alexandra Carlisle Pfeiffer of Lexington, an unopposed alternate.

Prominent among the Democratic women are Susan W. Fitzgerald of Boston and Helen G. Thayer of Worcester.

WOMAN SAYS CLARK TOLD HER HE'D RUN

But Former Speaker Disputes Mrs. Sanders' Story.

Mrs. Julia Sanders, a woman Tammany district leader and one of the organizers of the Swastika Club, announced here yesterday that Champ Clark had authorized her to say that he had decided to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President.

"I would be glad to serve the people as I have served them for twenty-three years," she quoted the former speaker of the House of Representatives as saying to her over the telephone. "I am not going into any State to wage a fight for delegates. As a poor man I cannot buy political patronage."

Straightway in Washington Mr. Clark denied he had authorized Mrs. Sanders or any one else to nominate him for President.

"I have not said a word or written a line or lifted my finger to get the nomination in San Francisco, and do not intend to do so," he said. "I suppose the delegates would like to elect the man nominated in San Francisco. If they think I can be elected they will nominate me. If they simply want to nominate somebody—if that's all they want—they will nominate somebody else."

A few husbands and any brothers who desire to join the convention party may accompany the new voters. Mrs. Crosby will set aside two of the cars for the accommodation of families of voting age if necessary.

The Democratic women's special will leave New York city June 19, at 3 o'clock, and will stop long enough at Chicago, Colorado Springs, the Grand Canyon, Riverside and Los Angeles for sightseeing trips. It will arrive at San Francisco June 27, the day before the convention opens.

Returning the party will see the Northwest and the Selkirk Mountains. Except while attending the convention the special's party will live on the train.

FOOD CAR FALLS INTO RIVER.

60,000 Pounds of Edibles Lost at Pier 66.

A fifteen-ton freight car, loaded with 60,000 pounds of foodstuffs, fell into the North River at the foot of West Twenty-seventh street yesterday morning when the brakes of a locomotive that was pushing it down pier 66 failed to work. Edward Gay of Communipaw avenue, Jersey City, the engineer, leaped from the cabin just as the locomotive started to follow the freight car.

Wrecking crews labored all the afternoon and succeeded in getting cable chains around the locomotive, which was then hoisted back on the pier. The foodstuffs were owned by Francis H. Leggett & Co., Thirtieth avenue and Twenty-seventh street, and were consigned to a firm in the West. The car was to have been taken across the river on a float to a New Jersey Railroad terminal.
